A Scituate woman was unhurt after her car hit a pillar at the Post Office on Monday.

The Duxbury Fire Department responded to a call at about 1 p.m. Monday afternoon. The caller reported a car had hit the Post Office building.

The driver said she "just put the car in park and it jumped forward," hitting the brick pillar outside the building. There was no damage to the building. The woman was evaluated by paramedics and was not injured. The building inspector was notified of the incident.
